

Dubai Knowledge Village

Introduction

Dubai Knowledge Village (DKV), launched in 2003, places the Middle East on the map as a destination for learning excellence. It also enjoys the distinction of being the world's only Free Zone totally focused on professional training and learning support services.

DKV has over 350 partners which include training centers, professional centers and HR companies. This thriving knowledge community was founded as part of a long-term economic strategy to develop the region's talent pool and accelerate its move into a knowledge-based economy.

DKV also offers first-rate facilities for the use of its knowledge partners and their students including serene landscapes, a food court, sports grounds and a gym. Its partners include diverse nationalities such as Australians, Indians, Pakistanis, Iranians, Russians, Belgians, English and Irish.
